Chapter 1 by Fanwizard

My eyes flutter open at the first rays of light and my hand instantly goes to my necklace.

Where am I? Where was he?

Flashes of last night blurred through my mind. His smile at me under the flashing lights, the flicker in his eyes, the darkness, the sirens wailing through the night.

What happened?

Tears threatened to spill over, but I wiped them away.

I ran my hands through my grimy hair. A memory of him and me in that salon, as he encouraged me to try a new look. And that had resulted in a pageboy haircut, where one side was longer than the other, with streaks of red dyed through, as I stood up in the chair, a half circle of blonde hair surrounding around me.

His face, that devilish smile, the smoldering eyes, the face of an angel but still dangerous, flashes through my mind. When I had first seen him, wearing his sunglasses that hid those dark smoldering eyes, I had known that he was danger, but I was still drawn to him. Mainly because I had lived my entire life in safe, that sheltered, innocent, vulnerable girl. And maybe he had known that and that's why he was so drawn to me.

Another memory from weeks ago flickered through my mind. The lights in the concert, and me
